

Marketing Metrics De-Mystified:

Methods for Measuring ROI and
Evaluating Your Marketing Effort

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

In spite of the Marketing Metrics buzz generated over the past decade, few people are actually implementing measurement tools to evaluate their marketing efforts. I want to thank everyone who responded to my inquiries and generously shared what they were doing at their firms. They include:

- Suzanne Lowe, President of Expertise Marketing
- Paula Stamp, Business Development Manager for PLC Construction Services Inc.
- Nadine Roper, National Director of Marketing Communications for STV Incorporated
- Jessica Laskaris, CPSM, Associate, Marketing and Administration, at PMA Consultants
- Carol Hunter, former Director of Marketing, Greenberg & Farrow
- Scott Mickle, President, AEC Marketing Solutions
- Jerry Yudelson, Principal of Greenway Consulting Group LLC
- Kathryn Petrie, Marketing Director, Strada

Thanks also to my graphic designer and friend, Carol Monahan of Design-Solutions (www.design-solutions.tv), who designed the book cover, and first recommended me to SDA to develop the marketing course for their design firm management program at Pratt Institute.

Special thanks to Kinshasa Peterson, Director of Marketing at LERA, who encouraged me throughout the writing of this book, and graciously proofread and commented on the final manuscript.

And most especially, thank you to my business/life coach and dear friend, Nina C. Augello. Her support and encouragement, as well as her proofreading and comments, have been crucial to the completion of this publication.
